Studies you have to assess.

3. Click on the relevant study and the page below will appear.

4. You will be able to view the completed pro-formas and also there will be an assessors form for you to complete.

The screenshot displays the eSASM web application interface. At the top, the header includes the ISD SCOTLAND logo on the left, the title 'eSASM' in the center, and the NHS National Services Scotland logo on the right. Below the header, a navigation bar shows 'First Line Study Assessments' and a '< Previous' button. The main content area is titled 'Surgical Pro-Forma - 2010/297' and 'Studies associated documents'. It is divided into two sections: 'Studies' and 'Assessor Forms'. The 'Studies' section has a 'View Study' button with a document icon. The 'Assessor Forms' section has a 'View Study' button with a document icon, which is highlighted by a black arrow pointing to the text 'Assessor form'.

6. eSASM has eliminated the need for code books. Assessors simply have to click on the icon at the end of the code box and all the codes with descriptions will appear.

The screenshot displays the eSASM assessment interface. At the top, there are several checklist items with 'Yes' checkboxes. Below this is a text input field with a dropdown arrow and a 'Reset' button. The main section is titled '3 Which statement best describes the management of this case?' and includes a sub-section for 'An area of concern'. Below this are radio button options for different levels of concern. Section '4 Clinical Events' contains a text box for 'Code:' with a small icon at its end, which is circled in red. A 'Search Dialog - Microsoft Internet Explorer' window is open over the code box, displaying a list of clinical codes (C0100-C0210) and their descriptions. An arrow points from the text 'The code box will appear' to the search dialog window.

The code box will appear

7. Once you have completed the assessment form then click “commit”.
8. A warning box will appear to ensure this is what you want to do. If you want to submit the form to SASM click ok and that will be the assessment completed

The screenshot displays the 'Surgical Assessor's Form - 2010' interface. At the top, there is a header with the iSD SCOTLAND logo on the left and the NHS National Services Scotland logo on the right. Below the header, a navigation bar contains the text 'Page 2' and a set of buttons: '< Previous', 'Study Detail', 'Commit', and 'Save as Draft'. The 'Commit' button is circled in red. The main content area is divided into sections for 'First area of concern or for consideration' and 'Second area of concern or for consideration'. Each section includes a 'Code' field and a 'Description of code' field. A table with columns for 'Presentation' (Audited Team, Other Team) and 'Pe' (Audite Team) is visible. A warning dialog box titled 'Microsoft Internet Explorer' is overlaid on the form, containing the following text: 'You are about to commit the changes to the form, after which you will be unable to make further changes. Please ensure that you have completed all relevant sections before continuing. PLEASE REMEMBER TO FORWARD ALL PATIENT NOTES TO SASM. Thank you for your time.' The 'OK' and 'Cancel' buttons at the bottom of the dialog box are also circled in red.

9. As the assessment is now completed it will have been removed from your my studies page.
